

For Muslim Residents

Halal Supermarkets and Restaurants in Hamamatsu

In recent years, Hamamatsu has seen an increase in the number of stores selling halal ingredients, making our city an easier place for Muslims to live.

The information listed here was accurate as in 2025. As opening times and locations may have changed since then, please ensure to check beforehand.

Specialty Stores and Supermarkets

From halal specialty stores to supermarkets which carry halal meat and an array of herbs and spices

Al-Hakim Halal Mart

Indonesian halal supermarket ☎️: 053-443-9272

This store is located close to a mosque and stocks halal ingredients and goods. The back of the store is also fitted with a space to heat up and eat any cooked chicken you purchase. Thanks to its proximity to a mosque, a wide variety of customers visit this store – including those from Indonesia, Bangladesh, Malaysia, and Pakistan. The store also stocks halal beef for gyu-don, halal chicken nuggets, and halal sausages. They also have an online shop.

Opening Hours: 10:00-21:00, Sat 10:00-23:00
(closed on Tuesdays)
Language: Indonesian, Japanese

📍 Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Terawaki-cho,
434, Maison Grace 1F (formerly Minami-ku)

The store also stocks hijabs, and traditional Muslim wooden toothbrushes

Matahari Cafe

Indonesian halal supermarket ☎: 053-443-9212

This store is located extremely close to Hamamatsu Station and is run by a Japanese man who is married to an Indonesian woman, so he can explain the details of each ingredient in Japanese. All the products in this store are halal, but the store also stocks alcohol.

Prayer mats are available for Muslims who need a place to pray. Hand- and foot-washing facilities are available

Closed on Mondays and Tuesdays
Language: Indonesian, Japanese

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Asahi-cho 11-3,
Kado Biru 2F (formerly Naka-ku)

The store also stocks fresh banana leaves and edible bananas.

Check out the restaurant on the second floor!

Miyuki Halal Store

Indonesian halal supermarket ☎: 053-569-2189

This store is located within walking distance from Hamamatsu Station and is stocked full of a variety of halal ingredients. All their products are halal-certified, including their medicines and cosmetic cremes, giving their technical intern customers peace of mind when shopping.

Miyuki Halal Store is run by an Indonesian Muslim married couple, and they even provide cooked food at the weekend at the counter. They also have an online shop.

Opening Hours:
Mon-Fri 10:00-20:00, Sat-Sun 10:00-17:00
Language: Indonesian, Japanese

📍 Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Ebisuka 1-5-23
(formerly Naka-ku)

This store also sells Halal Certified toothbrushes, shampoos, and conditioners!

Amika

Wholesale supermarket

☎: 053-458-7766

This store carries halal foods and stocks a large selection of frozen halal chicken meat. The back of the shop has a halal corner which even contains Japanese seasonings.

Opening Hours: 09:30-20:00

<https://tokubai.co.jp/%E3%82%A2%E3%83%9F%E3%82%AB/174208>

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Kamiasada 1-chome 2-50 (formerly Naka-ku)

Gyomu Supa - Hogawa Store

Wholesale supermarket

☎: 053-424-6662

This store stocks halal food, such as packs of frozen chicken meat from Brazil and a variety of condiments, seasonings, and snacks dotted around the store.

The employees at the store were not aware of the halal items, but the Gyomu Supa has a page with more details.

Opening Hours: 09:30-19:30

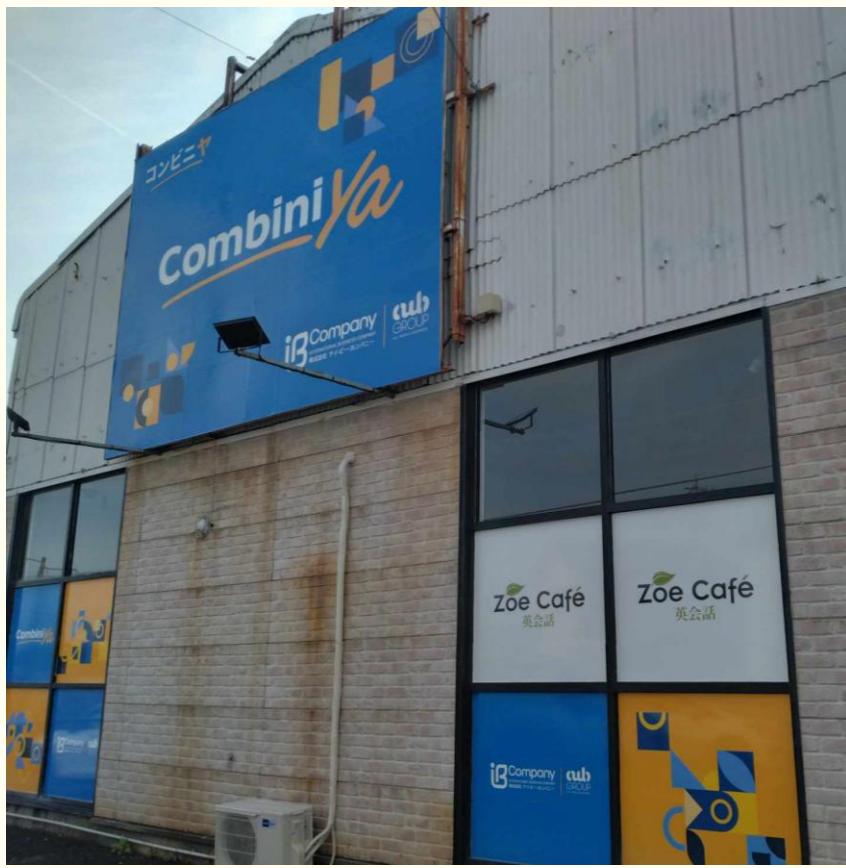

Language: Japanese

https://www.gyomusuper.jp/product/list.php?gc_id=312

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Tsumori-cho 85-1
(formerly Minami-ku)

Combiniya - Sanarudai Store

Brazilian Supermarket

☎: 053-401-3911

This store carries halal chicken from Brazil.

The store also stocks frozen meat and fish, and even has a cosmetics corner. The same building also contains a Brazilian restaurant and an English classroom, which are run by different proprietors.

Languages: Portuguese, Japanese

Goldinhos, a Brazillian restaurant, is on the same floor!

<https://www.instagram.com/combiniya.jp/>
(no website for just the Sanarudai store)

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Sanarudai 1-chome 6-15 \(formerly Naka-ku\)

MEGA Don Quijote - Kami Store

Discount Store

☎: 0570-038-411

This store carries halal foods.

The store employees do not seem to be very knowledgeable about the range of halal food in store, but they have a range of halal chicken and other meat – including frozen meat from Brazil and other international foods.

Opening Hours: 09:00-02:00

https://www.donki.com/store/shop_detail.php?shop_id=186

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku,
Higashiwakabayashi-cho 11-1
(formerly Minami-ku)

Mang Cola

Filipino Supermarket

☎: 080-6917-5310

This store carries halal chicken and duck.

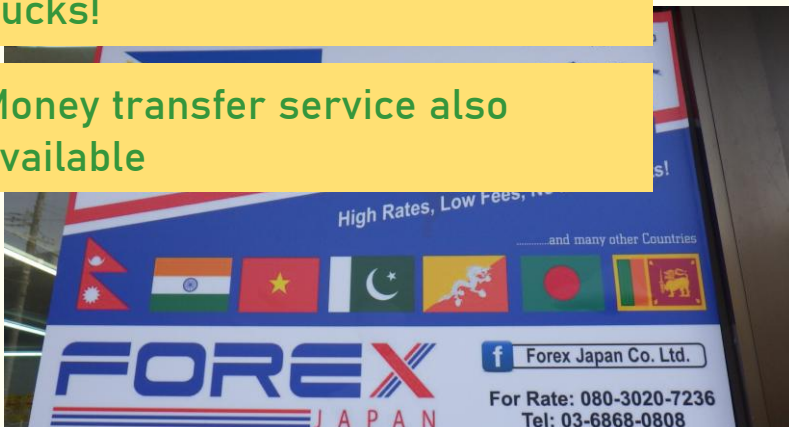

Located next to Ryuzenji Elementary School, this recently-opened Filipino supermarket has an extensive selection of frozen fish, meat, bread, seasonings, snacks, and drinks.

Opening Hours: 11:00-21:00 (Weekends 10:30-)
Languages: Tagalog, English (no Japanese)

Don't miss the excellent selection of fertilized eggs and whole ducks!

Money transfer service also available

<https://www.facebook.com/p/MANG-COLAS-Hamamatsu-100087295311741/>

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Ryuzenji-cho 12
(formerly Naka-ku)

Restaurants

Check out these restaurants run by Muslim residents of Hamamatsu

Ivan and Ani run the stall with their relatives.

This is what the Iwata kitchen looks like!

ANI & IVAN

Indonesia Food Stall

☎: 090-6619-1251

On Sundays you will find an authentic Indonesian food stall in the underground plaza by the Hamamatsu Station. You can adjust the heat of your dish by topping it with one of the many handmade sambals they have on offer. Many technical interns working nearby frequent this popular store. The stall also sells original instant meals made at a kitchen in Iwata City, which can be delivered from Kakegawa to Aichi.

Opening Hours:

Sunday: 12:00-19:00 (seasonal)

Languages: Indonesian, English, Japanese

Hamamatsu Bus Terminal (formerly Naka-ku)

You can also buy Pakistani ingredients on the same floor

Al-Rehman Restaurant

Pakistani Cuisine

☎: 090-5851-8065

This halal Pakistani restaurant is located within the vicinity of a mosque. The owner's (pictured left) father had experience cooking all over Japan. Following his passing three years ago, the owner called the chef (pictured right) from Pakistan and they restarted the business together. There is no menu and the prices fluctuate (the curry set was 1500 yen at the time of writing).

Opening Hours: 11:00-21:00

Sat: 10:00-21:00

Closed on Mondays; Tuesdays open upon request

Languages: Urdu, English, Japanese

<https://map.yahoo.co.jp/v2/place/bqLRQfXsJb->

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Nakatajima-cho 349-1
(formerly Minami-ku)

Karwan

Creative Pakistani Cuisine

☎: 053-451-2677

A long-running restaurant with almost 40 years of business. All the staff, including the owner, chefs, and part-time employees, are Pakistani. The menu includes Pakistani cuisine, as well as a wide variety of dishes from India, Indonesia, Thailand, and Nepal. The restaurant serves alcohol, but all the food ingredients are completely halal.

The high ceilings create a nice atmosphere, and the space can be hired for private parties

Opening Hours:

Lunch: 11:30-14:00 (from 12 on Sundays and holidays)

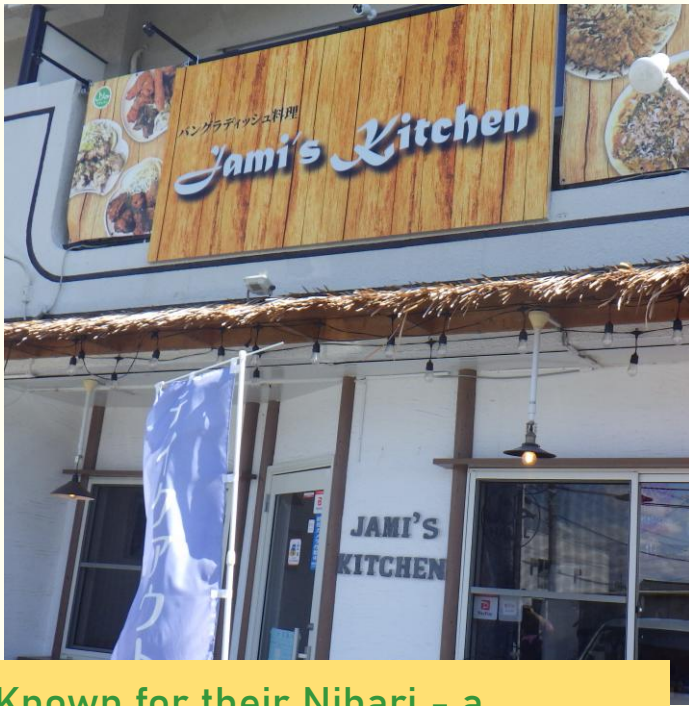

Dinner: 18:00-22:00

Closed on Wednesdays

Languages: Urdu, English, Japanese

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Daikumachi, 311-22
(formerly Naka-ku)

Known for their Nihari - a succulent lamb stew, complete with bone marrow

Jami's Kitchen

Bangladeshi & Indian Cuisine ☎: 053-568-0978

This restaurant is fully halal and even offers halal gyoza and ramen. Fish curry and other dishes not listed on the menu are also available for order, so please call them for the special menu.

The halal meat is imported from Gunma and Tokyo.

The proprietor and chef are independent from Biry Box.

Open every day

Languages: Japanese, English, Hindi, Bengali

<https://www.jamiskitchen.jp/>

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Mishima-cho 1522-1
(formerly Minami-ku)

Matahari Cafe

Indonesian Cuisine

☎: 053-443-9212

A restaurant located above an Indonesian restaurant serving Indonesian food with halal options made by a Muslim chef. Inside the store gets lively with many young Indonesians and those who have lived in Indonesia.

The second floor is a restaurant,
The first floor is a halal
Indonesian supermarket

Lunch: 11:00-15:00

Dinner: 18:00-22:00

Closed on Mondays and Tuesdays

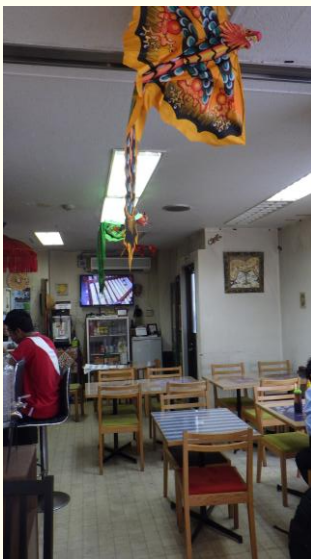

Languages: Indonesian

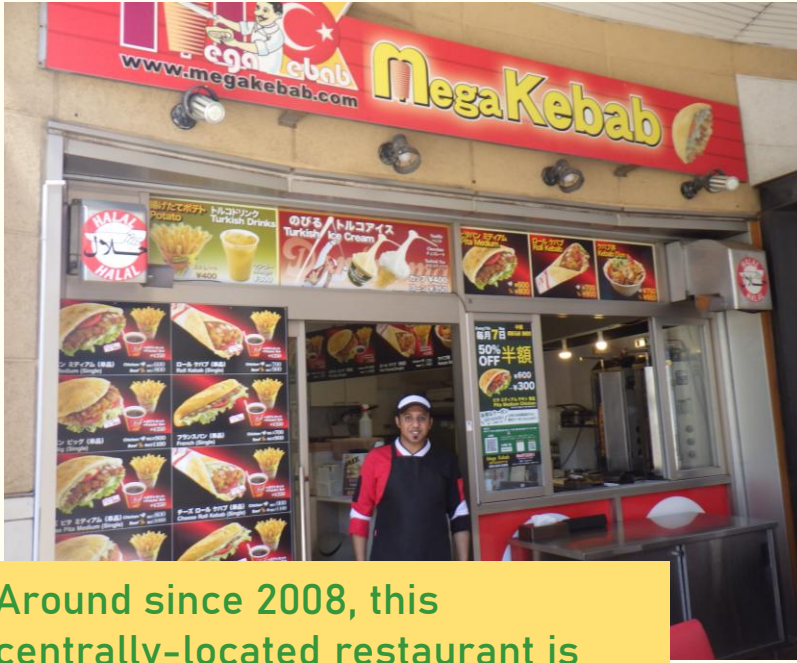

https://www.facebook.com/matahricafe/?locale=ja_JP

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Asahi-cho 11-3,
Kado Biru 2F (formerly Naka-ku)

Around since 2008, this centrally-located restaurant is beloved by Muslim and Japanese customers alike.

Mega Kebab Hamamatsu

Kebab Restaurant

☎: 053-543-6305

The Aichi-based flagship Mega Kebab Central Kitchen received Halal certification from the Kyoto Halal Association in June 2017. All branches of the store handle only halal-certified food products. Their stretchy Turkish ice cream is also quite popular.

Opening Hours:

Weekdays: 11:00-20:30

Weekends: 11:00-21:30

Languages: Arabic, English, Japanese

Both the owner and the chef are Egyptian.

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Kajimachi 100-1,
Zaza City 1F
(formerly Naka-ku)

Don't miss their monthly belly-dancing show!

Morocco Gohan Fassia

Moroccan Cuisine

☎: 053-540-4502

Opened in Autumn 2023, this restaurant is run by a Moroccan man from Fez and his Japanese wife. All the beautiful dishware is sourced straight from Morocco, and the various photos and traditional artwork on display will make anyone want to go travelling. The menu has a wide variety of dishes, including classics like tajine and couscous. The restaurant serves alcohol, such as Moroccan wine, but all the food ingredients are completely halal.

Opening Hours:

Lunch: 11:00-14:00

Dinner: 18:00-22:00

Closed on Wednesdays

Languages: Arabic, English, Japanese

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Maruzukacho 503-7
(formerly Higashi-ku)

A stylish interior which can be rented for private parties for 10-16 people

Sui chan

Indonesian Cuisine

☎: 090-1754-2426

Opened in December 2024 by Suwitra, a chef originally from Bali. Guests can expect a varied lunch menu of nasi goreng, bali ramen, grilled chicken with a sweet and spicy sauce, and tilapia stew. The level of spice can be tailored to every palate. All the meat used is halal and the rice is basmati. The restaurant also serves alcohol for customers who drink.

Opening Hours:

Lunch: 11:00-14:00

Dinner: 18:00-22:00

Closed on Mondays

Languages: Indonesian, English, Japanese

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Sakanamachi 315-45
MBldg. 102 (formerly Naka-ku)

The colorful art decorating the interior was made by a Brazilian artist, giving the restaurant a “gallery” vibe.

Biry Box

Indian (Biryani) Restaurant ☎: 053-569-8615

Authentic Indian food made by a Muslim Indian chef. Their namesake dish, biryani, is very popular amongst the Japanese and Indonesian citizens working in the area. The interior has a very multicultural vibe thanks to the attention to detail of the Indian and Brazilian couple who run the restaurant. Whilst they are not officially halal-certified, they thoroughly check all their ingredients such as their meat and condiments to ensure they are halal.

Opening Hours:

Open all year 11:00-22:00

Last order: 21:30

Languages: Hindi, English, Portuguese, Japanese

Hamamatsu-shi, Hamana-ku, Honzawai 144
(formerly Naka-ku)

Abdullah

Indian Restaurant and Halal Food

☎: 090-1239-7663

An Indian restaurant ran by one of the few Indian residents in Hamamatsu. Customers can enjoy a wide variety of authentic dishes alongside the typical curry, with the owner serving appetizers like samosas and masala padad. The store also sells Indian and Pakistani halal goods, spices, and basmati rice. Those wanting halal or vegetarian food can eat without concerns.

Opening Hours:

Closed on Wednesdays

Lunch - 11:00~15:00 (L.O. 14:45)

Dinner - 17:00~22:00 (L.O. 21:45)

Languages: Japanese, Hindi, Tamil, English

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Ebisuka 2-15-1
(formerly Naka-ku)

You can also buy ingredients at the owner's home. Just ask for more details.

The vending machine sells vacuum-packed halal cuisine – perfect for a midnight snack!

Roba No Mimi

Multinational Restaurant & Café ☎: 053-471-0022

This charming restaurant is filled with Moroccan furnishings and trinkets, allowing customers to slip into a foreign world as they smoke shisha. Menu items include tajine and tom yum kung. The store owner is not Muslim but the dishes are halal, and the store serves alcohol. Customers will also find a vending machine outside the restaurant – meaning they can buy halal food whenever they want including online.

Opening Hours:
12:00-15:00, 18:00-22:00

Closed on Sundays but check their social media before visiting.

Languages: Japanese

Hamamatsu-shi, Chuo-ku, Hagioka 3-9-30
(formerly Naka-ku)

Come taste Shizuoka's first South Indian restaurant and enjoy the resort vibes!

iCurry

South Indian Cuisine ☎: 080-9186-1133

This restaurant specializes in food from the chef's home region – South India. This branch of cuisine veers from Indian staples that Japanese people know and love like naan, and instead features dosa, paratha, and puri. These might not be as popular in Japan but their flavor is guaranteed! The spacious but stylish interior is enhanced by the carefully-selected dishware – the perfect spot for families, colleagues, or even a date.

Opening Hours:

Open all year - 11:00-15:00, 17:00-22:00

Languages: Japanese, English, Hindi, Tamil

Iwata-shi, Ebijima 669-1

The store also has a space for praying!

Feel free to ask to use their prayer room when visiting the store!

1116 Halal Bakery (IiIRO)

Halal Bakery w/ Indoor Seating ☎: 080-5906-1116

This store was opened in August 2024 by an Indonesian woman who felt that she wanted Muslim children to be able to eat sausage rolls, too. She uses halal chicken for her sausages, and all of her other ingredients are halal, from the flour and butter to even the mustard! She wanted to create a bakery that wasn't only for Muslims, but for everyone, so she created a stylish but welcoming interior. 90% of her customers are Japanese residents who live in the area!

Opening Hours:
07:00-16:00 (open as stocks last)
Closed Sunday and Monday
Mornings are 07:00-11:00

Languages: Indonesian, English, Japanese

Iwata-shi, Tateno 2016-6